

THE V-A-S-E.

From the madding crowd they stand apart,
The maidens four and the work of Art;
And none might tell from sight alone
In which had Culture ripest grown—
The Gotham Million fair to see,
The Philadelphia Pedigree,
The Boston Mind of azure hue,
Or the soulful Soul from Kalamazoo—
For all loved Art in a seemly way,
With an earnest soul and a capital A.
Long they worshipped; but no one broke
The sacred stillness, until up spoke
The Western one from the nameless place,
Who, blushing, said: "What a lovely vase."
Over three faces a sad smile flew.

And they edged away from Kalamazoo.
But Gotham's haughty soul was stirred
To crush the stranger with one small word.
Deftly hiding reproach in praise,
She cries: "'Tis, indeed, a lovely vase!"
But brief her unworthy triumph, when
The lofty one from the house of Penn.
With a condescension of two grandpas,
Exclaims: "It is quite a lovely vase!"
And glances round with an anxious thrill,
Awaiting the word of Beacon Hill.
But the Boston maid smiles courteouslee,
And gently murmurs: "Oh, pardon me!
I did not catch your remark, because
I was so entranced with that charming vase!"
—James Jeffrey Roche in Life.

Three Eyes

Cannot, possibly, be found exactly alike in every particular. Especially is this true of defective eyes—eyes needing glasses. Even a different measurement in the two eyes is quite common. One eye may be perfect and the other short-sighted; or they may have different degrees of the same defect, or a different defect.

Is it any wonder then, you "have never found a glass you could see through?" Try us—we'll find you a glass if you need it; if not we'll tell you so.

When You Call and Leave a Card ...

and that card is shoddy, one you should be ashamed of:

WHAT IMPRESSION do you leave behind?

You say you don't care; yes, but you should care.

You cannot afford to be careless about the kind of card you use; it does make a difference, whether you believe it or not.

Besides, there's no excuse for using the wrong kind; as the right kind, barring the first cost of the engraving costs no more than the wrong. We have two presses constantly going, doing nothing but turning out the RIGHT kind of card, the kind that will not be criticised.

You will have no reason to be ashamed or fear criticism if your cards are made by us.

YOUNG PUPILS
GIVE MUSICALE

Excellent Showing Made by Members of Mrs. Yarnley's Classes.

A pleasing musical exhibition by the pupils of Mrs. J. W. Yarnley's classes was given yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. hall. All of the little boys and girls who appeared upon the platform acquitted themselves with credit and in some instances cleverness in the rendition of the selection brought out generous applause. The attendance of parents and friends was quite large. The musicians were the youngest pupils studying under Mrs. Yarnley and naturally the musical selections for piano and voice were of the simplest kind. DELEGATE WILCOX

He Tells the Public What Congress Will Do Next Time.

Delegate Wilcox, who returned on the Zealandia, held a reception at his Punaehoa home yesterday for some of his friends. Wilcox was much improved by the sea voyage, but seems glad to be at home again. He affects to be pleased with his work in Washington. He thinks it certain that the bill providing for a Senatorial investigating commission will pass, and that Burton of Kansas, Foster of Washington and Blackburn of Kentucky are likely to compose it. The first two are Republicans. Wilcox believes that the Kohala ditch bill will become a law at the next session, but has no hope for the measure at this one. Unless the next Legislature takes care of the Tramways, the delegate says that Congress will pass the bill introduced by him at their next session. He believes also that the fire claims bill will become a law unless Congressman Cannon of Illinois sets his foot down on it. Wilcox expects to return to Washington in November and hopes to be re-elected.

Had Heart Disease.

Keanu, the Hawaiian woman, whose body was found on the beach at Waikiki opposite Pualelani, probably came to her death by heart disease, and the coroner's jury which sat on the case at noon yesterday, returned a verdict in accordance with the testimony. The verdict was as follows: "That the said Keanu (w) came to her death at Waikiki, in the district of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1902, from fatty degeneration of the heart."
"Chas. Chillingworth, Coroner; Wm. Savidge, Isaac Cockett, F. W. Weed, E. P. Sullivan, R. B. Kidd, W. W. Carlyle."
The Fourth of July will be generally observed as a holiday along the waterfront Friday.
